Beginning 15 days prior to an election, any qualified registered voters may vote by:

Absentee Early: Absentee early voters may vote at a Regional Elections Office in the jurisdiction where the voter is registered. Regional offices are located in Juneau, Anchorage, Wasilla, Fairbanks and Nome. A voter is eligible to vote early if the voter is voting at the Regional Elections Office and if the voter's registration record is active and current. Early voting is available only during Primary, General and Statewide Special Elections.

In-Person: Early in-person voters may vote at any Regional Elections Office or absentee voting location. When voting absentee in-person, the voter's eligibility to vote is verified after the voter is issued a ballot. Since the voter's eligibility could not be verified at the time of voting, the voter's voted ballot is placed inside an absentee voting envelope prior to being placed in the ballot box. How Do I Vote?

In order to vote in North Dakota, you must be:

- » A U.S. citizen;
- » At least 18 years old on the day of the election;
- » A resident of North Dakota; and
- » A resident in the precinct for 30 days preceding the election; and
- » Able to provide an acceptable form of identification.

Precincts in North Dakota maintain a list of voters who have voted in previous elections. When voters approach a polling location, they are required to provide an acceptable form of identification. If the voter's name is in the poll book, and the poll clerk verifies the voter's name and address, the voter is then allowed to vote. If the voter's name is not contained in the poll book, but the individual is determined eligible to vote, the poll clerks will record the voter's name in the poll book and request any additional required information from the individual.

Acceptable forms of identification for in-person voting include:

- » Current Driver's License
- » Non-Driver's ID Card
- » Tribal Government Issued ID Card
- » Long-term Care Identification Certificate (provided by North Dakota facility)
- » Identification must include the voter's:
 - » Name
 - » Residential Address (No P.O. Boxes)
 - » Date of Birth
- » You have the right to vote if you're in line or inside your polling place when the polls close. On Election Day, polls cannot open before 7a.m. and must be open by 9a.m. Polls must remain open until 7p.m. and no later than 9p.m. Contact the County Auditor at <http://bit.ly/29PviZz> if you are unsure about your polling place's hours.

Voter Identification requirements for absentee or mail voting:

- » In addition to the forms of ID listed above, you may also use the following forms of identification for absentee or mail voting:
 - » A valid Passport or Military ID – Only for North Dakota residents living outside the U.S. who do not possess one of the other forms of ID.
 - » Attester – An applicant without an acceptable ID may use an Attester if the applicant has a disability that prevents the applicant from traveling to obtain an ID. The Attester must provide his or her name, North Dakota driver's license, non-driver's ID, or tribal ID number, and sign the absentee/mail ballot application form to attest to the applicant's North Dakota residency and voting eligibility.

You can vote before Election Day by mail or by absentee.

In North Dakota, all voters may vote early by absentee. Ballots are not available until the 40th day before an election. Eligible voters may request Absentee ballot applications from the auditor's office or access applications online.

- » North Dakota Office of the State Auditor: (701)328.2241;
- » Online: <http://bit.ly/24wp4Ps>
- » The County Official Newspaper will also print the application for two consecutive weeks.

» If you live in a county with mail ballot elections (at least one polling place must be open on Election Day), the county is required to mail a ballot application to every active voter between the 50th and 40th day before the election.

» If voting absentee by mail, your return envelope must be postmarked no later than the day before the election. You can also deliver your absentee ballot in-person to your polling place by 4 p.m. on Election Day.

Language Assistance

- » You can have anyone assist you in casting your vote including a translator, except for your employer or labor union or any officer or agent of them.

Where Do I Vote?

You have to vote at the polling place for the address where you live. To find out where your polling place is, you can call your county clerk's office or look up your polling place on line. You should also check your local newspaper within 2 weeks of an election for your polling location, which is required to be published by the county clerk. If you go to the wrong polling place you can ask a poll worker to help you find the polling place where you are registered. Polls are open from 7 A.M. to 7 P.M. on Election Day.
